Dave Petrone

Consistent Leadership and Management in a Constantly Changing Environment (Keynote)

David Petrone was Chairman and Founder of Housing Capital Company, a joint venture formed in 1994 with US Bank. He later sold his interest to them and retired in 2016. Prior to forming Housing Capital, Dave was Vice Chairman at Wells Fargo Bank where he served on the Executive Management Committee. He was the head of wholesale banking as well as the bank’s senior lender. The first five years of his career were spent with Union Bank in Los Angeles.

Dave has served on various NYSE boards including Jacobs Engineering, Spieker Properties, Alexandria Real Estate Equities as well as a private board, Finelite, Inc.

He is currently serving as Cabinet Chair of the University of Oregon’s $2 billion capital campaign and has also been involved in other various non-profit boards including the University of Oregon Board of Trustees, Eastside Preparatory School, Exploratorium and Chamber of Commerce in San Francisco.

Dave and wife Nancy have been married for 41 years, and have three daughters; Lindsay, Carly, and Amy.

Dave graduated from the University of Oregon with a B.S. in Economics in 1966 and an M.B.A. in Finance in 1968.
