Amy Smith

An Environment of Control? (PM Session)

Amy Smith is an Internal Auditor in the University’s Office of Internal Audit. Before coming to the University of Oregon, she was an Internal Auditor at Pepperdine University. Her professional experience also includes a variety of higher education areas, such as legal, human resources, admissions, and academic support.