Suzy Stadelman

Suicide Prevention (PM Session)

Suzy Stadelman is the Outreach Coordinator at the University Counseling and Testing Center (UCTC) and the Suicide Prevention Team Coordinator. Her areas of focus are on mental health topics, particularly stress, body image, and suicide prevention. She earned her master’s degree in Couples and Family Therapy from the University of Oregon. Suzie is also an Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST) trainer.

Another significant part of her role at the UO is being one of the advisors to the UCTC’s Student Advisory Board (SAB). She involves SAB members in outreach and education programs for the campus community and provides professional development opportunities. Suzie has a passion for primary prevention work and values the importance of collaboration to involve the community in taking care of themselves and others.
