Tyan Taubner

Accessible Education Center (AEC) Presents: Reframing Diversity Through Disability (PM Session)

Tyan Taubner has been an Access Advisor with the AEC since 2011 and feels fortunate to serve in a position that promotes greater diversity on campus. She enjoys working with students and faculty to raise awareness and remove barriers toward more accessible and inclusive built instructional and attitudinal environments.

Tyan is interested in helping students develop resiliency and self-compassion. She draws from the growing field of research in mindfulness meditation when she meets with students. She also facilitates introductory and continuing mindfulness meditation groups targeting stress resiliency.